Financial and in-kind Supports

The African Strategy acknowledges in-kind support from the The African Physical Society (AfPS) ↗ and CERN ↗. This in-kind support is in the form of logistical support of web, Indico agenda, email and chat forum service.

We thanks the InternationalAdvisoryCommittee with invaluable inputs to guide this work to successful completion.

We acknowledge as well the group and sub-group conveners and the physics communities at large for their collective engagement to make this historical work a resounding success.
