From	Russia	UK/I
To	DECH	South East Europe

Report from UK/I

List of sites eligible for suspension.

- ◇ SITE: RO-03-UPB; ROC: SEE; GGUS:45038 ↗
 - Reason for escalation: still within 2nd mail escalation, but no updates for last 2 weeks
 - No one from South East online (at the time) actions to be created.
- ◇ SITE: RRC-KI; ROC: Russia; GGUS:45788 ↗, GGUS:45789 ↗
 - (Reason for escalation: reply from SAM testing team is required)

Report from Russia

Nothing to report.

Other points

IMCSUL-INF site from Northern Europe. Site is in downtime since 14/01/2009 and end date is set to 27/02/2009 (more then 1 month).

- ◇ Northern Europe confirmed that this site is now suspended so no more action required.

PPS Reports and Issues

- OpsMeetingPps
- Rollback of Release Testing.

Jeremy

Is this just the swapping to the old repository.

Antonio

Yes

- Cream CE testing - See results in agenda. *Another request for sites to early tests services. Thanks to GRIF DPM and LFC offers.
- See agenda for more details.

EGEE Items From ROC Reports

South East Europe

1. We would like to address the issue at GGUS:45785 ↗. In particular, for the new look of <https://lcg-sam.cern.ch:8443/sam/sam.py> ↗.
 - First, we would like to be able to right-click and copy links there directly, instead of bookmarking them. And we would like to be able to do that for the "Details" also."
 - A ticket is with SAM and will be dealt with by the SAM team.
2. A non urgent CA update was broadcasted on late Thursday, meaning that most sites saw that on Friday GGUS:45892 ↗. This not a good practice in our opinion counter to <http://goc.grid.sinica.edu.tw/gocwiki> ↗ Procedure_for_new_CA_release. There have been in the past problems spotted after the release, which in this case would mean that they would have be dealt during the weekend.
 - We will try and keep the process to the first half of the week. This time the process was delayed till the end of the week due to illness.
3. Quiet some time ago we opened GGUS:42028 ↗ about DPM. There has been no response ever since, but we eventually found assistance from the dpm user mailing list discovered from a post in lcg rollout. Is DPM not supported via GGUS?
 - Use the new escalation details now available in GGUS.

UK/I

We were asked to check whether our regions had any issues with gLite 3.0 becoming obsolete. In the UK we had 3 sites still running a gLite 3.0 CE. Of these, two can easily move their remaining CE to 3.1. However the third is running the Condor batch system and the system administrator notes that: "The Condor part of gLite-3.1 is still in the PPS and according to the SA3 batchsystem-condor team, it doesn't seem to work with WMS job submission as well. Hence, it not possible for Cambridge to upgrade the CE to 3.1 until condor integration work is complete and in production".

◇ Nick will follow up , create action item for Nick.

SAM Service

- In one week's time, we will stop submitting SE and SRMv1 tests. They were replaced in December by the SRMv2 tests.
- Barring any objections from the WLCG MB, and following a request from Mattias Ellert (NDGF), the ARCCE-lfc test will be made critical at the beginning of March. At the same time, the ARCCE-rls test will be made non-critical. FROM NDGF: Since ATLAS has moved away from using the RLS server and no other LCG experiment is using it, we would like to mark the ARCCE-rls test as non-critical. The experiments are now using LFC instead, and we have since some time an ARCCE-lfc test that tests the LFC functionality on the clusters. Since this functionality is critical for production, we would like to make this test critical.

Gilles

Should the classic-SE be deleted as a type from the GOCDB?

Steve

Don't do unless there is reason. There are and will be for ever more I expect classic SEs out there.

WLCG Items

None

OSG Items

- GGUS:45488 ↗ , an escalation procedure will occur this Thursday so hopefully some progress after that.

- GGUS:45094 ↗, Waiting on Gunter who is now just back today.
