 - ◆ The Production Release criteria defines the minimum set of criteria considered to be mandatory in a component release scheduled for production. The criteria will be checked by QC who will write a QC report informing about the compliance with the criteria. This check takes place once the component release has been certified by the PT as described in the Change Management Policy. The Production release criteria may change throughout the lifetime of the project. Changes will be agreed with PEB and QC, and announced to PTs.
