

Question

Hello, We have some demo videos of our system that we would like to attach and link from our page. Apparently the video size is quite large... approx 25MB. Currently this is too large to attach. Can the attachment size be increased for:

TWiki is a web collaboration tool and is not meant to host huge files like videos. Large attachments are therefore not supported. I recommend you to put your video on another web server and simply link it to your TWiki pages.
