

Recognized by European Physical Society

Particles and Fields

Reconstructed Cherenkov angle as a function of track momentum in the C_4F_{10} radiator. Whilst the RICH detectors are primarily used for hadron identification, a distinct muon band can also be observed. From The LHCb RICH Collaboration: Performance of the LHCb RICH detector at the LHC